SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

MARK HARDIE, an individual; and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

CALIFORNIA INDEPENDENT
SYSTEM OPERATOR (CAL-ISO), a
California Not For Profit, For Public
Benefit Corporation and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No. BC220839

NOTICE OF DECERTIFICATION OF CLASS ACTION

TO: ALL TRANSMISSION DISPATCHERS CURRENTLY OR FORMERLY EMPLOYED BY CALIFORNIA INDEPENDENT SYSTEM OPERATOR
(CAL-ISO) FROM JANUARY 1, 1997 TO THE PRESENT AND WHO OPTED IN TO THE TRANSMISSION DISPATCHER CLASS

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Transmission Dispatcher class action certified on November 6, 2001, has been decertified by this Court based on the failure of a sufficient number of Class Notice recipients to opt in to the class action. As a result, this lawsuit will no longer proceed as a class action.

1 Upon decertification by the Court, the statute of limitations as to your individual claim
2 will begin to run. In this regard, and to protect your interests, you will be required, and/or may 3 have to file an individual action. You should seek legal advice regarding your rights and the most
4 appropriate way to protect those rights should you determine to do so.

5 Should you have any questions regarding this matter, you may contact either or both of 6 the following:
