

SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE
Form Four

TO: All Individuals Who Submitted A Late Claim Form In Response To The Notice Of The Settlement Of The Class Action Entitled O'Connor, et al. v. Blue Cross of California

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the claim form which you submitted in response to the settlement of the class action entitled O'Connor, et al. v. Blue Cross of California was late. Pursuant to the order of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles, you were required to submit a questionnaire and a health statement verified by a physician by a specified date. The claim form and health statement you submitted, however, was postmarked or faxed after that date.

In order for your claim to be processed, you must submit the following by February 15, 1998:

On the form provided, a written explanation of the reason or reasons why you were unable to provide the required form by the Court-ordered deadline. This explanation of inability to comply in a timely fashion must be signed by you under penalty of perjury and notarized before a person authorized under California law to do so.

Failure to complete and submit the enclosed form by the February 15, 1998, deadline will result in an automatic denial of your claim. Accordingly, please submit by no later than February 15, 1998, the enclosed statement of inability to comply in a timely fashion completed and signed under oath by you before a notary public.

Address your submission, postmarked no later than February 15, 1998, to:

California Care Health Insurance Class Action
2801 Ocean Park Boulevard, #11
Santa Monica, CA 90405

Dated: January ____, 1998

Honorable Bruce Mitchell
Commissioner of the
Los Angeles Superior Court
